EXPERIENCE

I am a senior executive and shipbroker with 40 years' experience in the shipping sector at board and department head level. I have covered all aspects of the dry cargo mix from coastal size vessels through to capesize, including containers and project cargo. I have hands-on experience of dealing exclusively for 2 significant trading houses over many years in a senior executive chartering capacity. I also worked as a senior chartering manager for a major ship owner and operator. I recently worked for a leading consulting group in the field of maritime investigation and intelligence services covering maritime crime, fraud, claims, court actions arbitrations and asset tracing. I am a Freeman of the City of London and The Worshipful Company of Shipwrights. I became a member of the Baltic Exchange in 1976. I was a board director of the Baltic 2012-2016, and currently sit on the Membership Committee.
